TRENDSETTING PRODUCT GROUP

Visitor

"It's very important because here it is a point where we meet people and we discover also new products and see the technology – the new technology – in the toy world."

MB Group, Mohamed Barkat, General Manager

Exhibitor

"The Spielwarenmesse is following a trend in the market by introducing the product group. Our products are optimally placed among electronic toys. The Tech2Play activity area itself is the perfect platform for our products and we were able to make numerous contacts through it. The visitors were fascinated by the robots and the like."
