

Small-series manufacturers at Spielwarenmesse 2014

Model railway systems live from individual details and technical refinements. Hall 4A at Spielwarenmesse is full of them, when the industry shows model railways and accessories for all gauges from 29 January to 3 February 2014. The small-series manufacturers are also there and present their products from select models to sophisticated technology in a special area.

- ABE Atelier Belle Époque

Whether buildings or industrial plants, ABE's exclusive products radiate the nostalgic charm of the Belle Époque in every model railway system.

- Lokführer-Lukas Modellbau e.K.

Lokführer-Lukas supplies kits for high-quality large-gauge models with an authentic and sound design.

- REGNER Dampf- und Eisenbahntechnik

Regner produces simple, powerful and robust locomotives and steam engines with reliable engineering that gives pleasure for a long time.

- SAI Collections

House building kits, terrain accessories, car models – SAI offers a complete range, in which selected old-timer models stand out.

- Soft-Lok

Soft-Lok has everything for digital control of model railways – from control software to PC feedback system.

- Sol-Expert Group

The Sol-Expert Group develops and produces technical components and solar construction kits in 1:87 scale – also for the use of solar energy.

The special area for small-series manufacturers offers model railway retailers products they can use to set individual touches for their customers.
